HOBOKEN POLICEMEN SHOT.

CHARLES GEBHARDT KILLED BY A MAN WHOM HE TRIED TO ARREST.

THE MURDERER, CHARLES K. BROWN, A JERSEY CITY CARPENTER, HELD-HE HAD A SET OF BURGLAR'S TOOLS AND WAS TRY-

ING TO ESCAPE. Charles Gebhardt, of the Hoboken police, was murdered by a burglar whom he was trying to arrest at. Twelfth and Bloomfield sts., Hoboken, yes terday afternoon, between 4 and 5 o'clock.

For the last few weeks in the uptown section of Acboken numerous small robberies have taken place, and Captain John Fanning detailed some of his best officers to do duty in citizens' clothes and to endeavor to catch the thieves. Gebhardt was when he saw a man standing in Twelfth and Bloomfield sts. with a bag in his hand. Just then Bloomfield six with a bag in his hand. Just then all the state of him. Do you know that man over there? I lon't like his looks and I am going to follow him. The man came over toward them, and Letts walked way. Gebhardt talked to the man, and they grapiled. The man drew a revolver and fired three hots at the officer, one of which took effect in his tomach. The marderer then ran away. Gebhardt ave chase and caught the man before he had gone nif a block, and again they clinched. The murerer then fired two shots at the wounded officer, ne of which took effect under the haar and aused death.

d death, man again began to run, but Officer Meyer, ted by the shots, hurried to the scene and chase. Meyer caught him and clubbed him when the company to the scene and the company to th give chase. Meyer caught him and clubbed him into submission.

Detective Kerrigan came running up, and Gebhardt fell into his rms. Kerrigan placed him on the sidewalk. Dr. Herman Childs, who was passing, did what he could for the injured man, but the police man expired in a few minutes.

The murderer was taken to the Second Precinct police station and afterward to Police Headquarters where he made a statement to Cabtains Patrick Hayes and John Fanning. He said he was James K. Brown, a carpenter, thirty-four years old, and lived in Erie-st. Jersey City. He said he was out of work, married, and had three children. "I had a bag of tools," he said, "and if I told you where I got them you would say I was lying." asket Captain Hayes.

"I was only trying to escape. I am sorry I killed them." I had heard them.

Captain Hayes
"I was only trying to escape I am sorry I killed him. I knew I had burglar's tools, and I wanted to get away. I started to run. He knocked me down and punched me. I tried to get up, and put my hand against his face to shove him away. He took my finger in his mouth, and bit it. I got up, but he struck me again. I pulled my finger out of his mouth and ran. While running I looked back and saw a revolver in the officer's hands. I pulled mine, and said. Keep back, or you'll get shot. He came at me and I fired three times, each shot taking effect."

ing effect."
"Are you trying to get us to believe you shot in self-defence?" asked Captain Hayes.
"No," replied Brown. "I was only trying to get

"No." replied Brown, "I was only trying to get away."

The bag Brown had in his possession was found to contain a costly set of burgiar's tools.

The body of Policeman Gebhardt was removed to the Second Precinct police station.

Gebhardt had a good record as an officer. He was appointed on the force on May 17, 1891. He leaves a wife and five small children. When Mrs. Gebhardt was told of her husband's fate by Detective Quinn and ex-School Trustee George Gebhardt, a brother of the murdered officer, she became hysterical. She was recovering from a severe sickness, and last night she was reported to be in a critical condition.

Brown was arraigned before Recorder Stanton iast night. The testimony of the witnesses was taken. Brown refused to make a statement in court, and he was committed to the County Jail.

CIVIL ENGINEERS IN SESSION

DANGER OF DEPENDING ON A SINGLE

Detroit, July 26.-In the absence of Mayor May iry, the Rev. C. L. Arnold to-day opened the convention of the American Society of Civil Engineers with a welcoming address. The first business was the address of the president. Alphonse Fteley. He gave an excellent summary of the progress made railroad and bridge building, street railway ogress, the building of tall, fireproof buildings many other engineering subjects Mr. Fteley seacoast cities of the country there is only one system of water supply, which is taking too great a risk. He said where the density of population was great there should always be more than one supply, and that it is to be wondered at that no harm has resulted as yet from the single supply system.
A preliminary business meeting was held and temporary committees were appointed. Several prominent Army engineering officers are among the members present. Discussions of technical subjects will be varied by excursions and social affairs

Lippy, his father and two brothers carried off the steamer nine canvas sacks, which weighed about one hundred pounds each. This was the clean-up from Lippy's claim, No. 16. Eldorado. Charles Randail, one of the old-timers, had $34,000. Other individual amounts range from $1,000 to $10,000, $5,000 being an average. At 5 o'clock this afternoon sixty-seven passengers had deposited in the Assay Office about $300,000. Four thousand ounces was the largest individual amount This did not include the Lippy and Randail gold. About one-third of the passengers brought no gold. Some of them had gone in the spring. Not liking the prospects, they sold their outflits and returned.

People are arriving in St. Michael's every day from up the Yukon, and the next steamers from there will be crowded to their fullest capacity. Owing to the high rates on river steamers, many are floating down in small boats. When the Neison left St. Michael's there were twenty-six vessels there. Nine river steamers loaded to the guards had started up the river. There is a large amount of merchandise at St. Michael's, which will insure plenty of fod next winter, if it can be got up before the ice closes navigation.

Moran's fleet of ten river steamers was passed by the Nelson just after it had entered Behring Sea. about six hundred miles from St. Michael's.

The arrival of the fleet was anxiously awited at St. Michael's, as it would enable many of the steamers to send passengers up the river. The passengers were getting measy and discontented Several steamers were unable to sail, owing to the fact that their passengers would not disembark until river transportation was provided for them. Among the steamers that were delayed were the Progreso, the South Portland and the Brixham.

CHARLES F. BATES IN COURT.

Charles F Bates, the well-known horseman, who is called "Fatty" Bates, appeared in the West Side police court yesterday afternoon before Magistrate Deuel in answer to a summons issued on a complaint made against him by Mrs. Rose Kincald, a colored woman, of No. 314 West Sixty-ninth-st., who said that her son Clarence, thirteen years old, had been kicked last week by a horse belonging to Mr.

Bates has a stable in West End-ave., between Bixty-ninth and Seventieth sts According to several witnesses the horse that kicked the lad was made to gailop up and down the street. As the horse was passing him, Bates struck it with a whip and it sprang toward the curbstone, where the lad was standing, kicking him in the forehead. The boy was dazed by the kick and was taken to his home by a colored man. Moses Lewis, colored, testified that when the boy was kicked Bates laughed. In court Bates was in mirthful mood, and was twice reprimanded by the Magistrate.

"This is no a minstrel show," said the Magistrate to him. This is a very serious mater, and I will not have persons making merry in this court." At the close of the hearing the Magistrate and that there was no evidence of criminal negligence, as the animal was led by a naliter at the time it kicked the boy. "There might be," he added, "such negligence as could bear out a civil suit for damages. After saying that he was about to bring a suit for damages the counsel for Mrs. Kinnalia asked for a warrant for the Arrest of Bates on a complaint of malinaining a nuisance. Several persons living near Bates's stable made affidavits that the stable was a nuisance as men in scanty attire trained horses from the stable in a nearby street on Sundays, and people were obliged to go two blocks out of their way in going to church. It was alleged that horses had been trained in the street for the last two years. Magistrate Deuel paroled Bates in the custody of his counsel on the complaint charging him with maintaining a nuisance.

TWO CHILDREN SUFFOCATED BY GAS. Philadelphia, July 26.-Annie and Bessie Baisley, aged five and nine years, respectively, were as-physisted by illuminating gas early to-day at the home of their parents, No. 2,252 North Warnock-st. When the children went to bed last night the win dows of their bedroom were open and the gas turned off. When their bodies were found this morning the windows were closed and the gas was turned on. It is supposed that one of the children arose in the night to close the windows and accidentally turned the gas on.

BALTIMORE AND OHIO REORGANIZATION. OPPOSITION TO THE COMMITTEE'S PLAN SAID TO

Baltimore, July 26 (Special).-Opposition to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Reorganization Committee's plan is rapidly increasing. A conference of some of the persons interested was held to-The Mercantile Trust Company here yesterday and to-day received a number of responses of the holders of first preferred stock, advising holders of the stock not to accept the terms offered by the Reorganization Committee, but to unite in the litigation which is being carried on by Johns Hopkins University. This suit is now pending in the United States Supreme Court, and its object is to establish the first preferred stock as a perpetual lien on the property according to the views which have been entertained by the officers of this stock. August I is the date set by the Reorganization Committee, when all holders of stocks and securities of the Baltimore and Oho Railroad who accept the terms of the plan must have deposited their holdings. Unless this time is extended until after the Supreme Court has announced its decision, application will be made for an injunction to restrain the reorganization until the rights of the holders of preferred stock have been determined. of the holders of first preferred stock, advising

THE KORTRIGHT CASE DROPPED.

CUSTODY OF LITTLE ALICE GIVEN TO HER AUNT. MISS PHIPPS

The habeas corpus proceedings in the Kortright case came to an abrupt end before Justice Daly, in the Supreme Court, yesterday afternoon. John D. Lindsay, as counsel for Mrs. E Theresa Kortright, asked Justice Daly for permission to with the habeas corpus proceedings for the cus-of seven-year-old Alice Gouverneur Kortright, her stepdaughter. Mr. Lindsay said:
"Mrs Kortright feels, and I agree with her.

that these proceedings should not be entered into any further. I have talked over the matter with Mr. Bowers, Mr. Kortright's counsel, and we have agreed to withdraw the proceedings." John M. Bowers, the attorney for Mr. Kortright, said that he had held an interview with Mr.

Lindsay and Mrs. Kortright, and it was agreed that the proceedings should be dropped. There was, however, on record a charge that Mr. Kortright was insane when he made the deed of guardianship to Miss Ada Phipps, the child's maternal aunt. Mr Bowers wished the order made to correct this by stating that at the time the deed of guardianship was made Mr. Kortright was sane and that the deed was valid.

Justice Daly said that he approved of the order that had been prepared. This order states that Mr. Kortright was sane when he made the deed, and closes as follows:

"That the proceedings herein be and the same are hereby dismissed, and the custody of the said Alice Gouverneur Kortright be and the same is hereby awarded to Ada Phipps.

Justice Daly said that he heartily approved of the withdrawal of the proceedings. Miss Phipps has had charge of the child for four years, and was the best person to have the care and custody of her. ternal aunt. Mr · Bowers wished the order made

MESSES, JAMES, VROOMAN AND MOSS RESIGN FROM THE MUTUAL RESERVE FUND

LIFE ASSOCIATION The Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association has received the resignations of Thomas L. James, first vice-president: John W. Vrooman, treasurer, and Morton D. Ross, general manager. The coincidence of the three resignations being announced together led to the impression in some quarters that there was a want of harmony in the association. was emphatically denied yesterday by Hillary Bell,

The pleasantest relations still exist between Messrs. James. Vrooman and Moss and the executive body of the association. Mr. Vroo-man resigned as long ago as last January, but he was asked to stay until the business of reappor-tioning the rates was ended. He readily consented. and when, on July 1, he asked to be released his resignation was accepted. He left us to devote himself to banking interests. His place has been filled by George W. B. Harper, the late president and founder of the association.

"Mr. James is president of the Lincoln National Bank, of this city, and his position is so important and makes such demands upon his time that he felt he was unable to give his attention to the association, and he resigned in consequence. His resignation has not yet gone into effect, and therefore his successor has not been appointed, and probably will not be until our next annual meeting. "With regard to Mr. Moss, he was appointed general manager to fill the place vacated by J. D. Wells, second vice-president, when he went to Europe to inspect the affairs of the association's branch there. Mr. Wells was our general manager for about seven years, and when he returned from Europe he asked that he might be reappointed to his old position. It was given to him, and Mr. Moss, who intends, I believe, to take a long rest, resigned."

COMES TO PROSECUTE HER HUSBAND. Mrs. Fannie Ash and her eldest daughter, Sarah, of London, England, arrived on the Aurania an left the Barge Office for Utica, N. V., yesterday morning. Mrs. Ash told the Board of Special Inmorning. Mrs. Ash told the Board of Special Inquiry that she had come here to prosecute her husband for bigamy. He left home eleven years ago and came to the United States. For a year he sent her money, and then he ceased to communicate with her, and she thought he was dead. A month ago she received letters from several men in Utlea who were members of the same secret society as her husband, in which she was informed that he had married another woman. She was released after telling this story, and at once started for Utlea.

NO CLEW TO THE MURDER OF C. A. BRANT. St. Louis. July 26.-After working all night and today on the mystery surrounding the murder last night of Charles A. Brant, a stenographer, by three unidentified men, the police are still in the dark. No motive for the crime is known, though friction between Brant and the father of Mary M. Harding, his divorced wife, is known to have existed. The murder occurred on a dark street corner in the vicinity of which many "hold-ups" have occurred, and some believe that the crime was committed by robbers. The police have no theory to advance. The private papers of the dead man found in his trunk to-day snowed that he had only one trouble-the tear that something would happen to prevent the reconciliation which he and his former wife had planned. All the letters in the trunk showed conclusively the mutual devotion still existing between the estranged husband and wife. Miss Harding is now at Asbury Park with her father. between Brant and the father of Mary M. Harding.
